IMPORTANT MESSAGE

Dear Parents,

For years we have not had an issue with vandalism and graffiti at Avalon. Recently several students participated in drawing, painting, and carving graffiti in several washrooms. After talking with them, several students reluctantly admitted participating. We are taking measures over the next few weeks to repair the damage, but meanwhile, we would like to remind everybody that damaging school property is considered a major offense in our school handbook, and can result in fines, suspension and even expulsion. It's senseless and results in a breach of trust between staff and students, and between students and students. We want everyone at Avalon to feel safe, respected and valued. ~April Cottreau, Principal/Teacher
