"You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world."

In the morning we reviewed our coins and worked on counting our money into our purses. Then we went off to the store with our umbrellas. We found ingredients to make nachos, bought ice cream and went back to school. At lunch time we all played a part in getting our ingredients together. :)

Mom, You're My Everyday Hero

Mom, I love you
For all the ways you care.
You help me up when I fall down,
You're always kind and fair.

You fix my lunch, you tie my shoes,
You teach me right from wrong.
You cheer me on when I feel small,
You help me grow up strong.

You make me laugh when I feel sad,
You wipe away my tears.
You hold me close and help me feel
Safe through all the years.

So here's a hug, and here's a kiss,
And words I want to say—
Thank you, Mom, for being you,
Happy Mother's Day!
